

- Information/Awareness regarding Foodborne diseases, zoonoses including occupationally acquired diseases among the farmers is being disseminated by the scientists of the division by:
 - a) Addressing to the farmers in the far flung areas.
 - b) Delivering lectures to the school going children.
 - c) Use of print and electronic media.
- Scientists of the division are reaching out to the farmers under the programme “Mera Goan Mera Gourav”.
- Scientist of the division are providing advisory/consultancy to the famers regarding various zoonotic disease with particular emphasis on Rabies, Scrub Typhus, parasitic diseases and Brucellosis.
- Bacteriological/Hygienic evaluation of milk and culture sensitivity test on masitic milk is being carried out in the division on routine basis to facilitate use of specific antibiotics for treatment